

Listening Comprehension

Exercise 1: Watch the video and answer the following questions.

1. Which festivals are mentioned by the speakers?
2. How does the first speaker celebrate Christmas with their family?
3. What does the second speaker do during Guy Fawkes Night?
4. How does the third speaker celebrate New Year?
5. What activity do the children do on Easter morning at the fourth speaker's house?
6. What does the fifth speaker's family do for her on Mother's Day?
7. Why is Father's Day special for the sixth speaker's family?

Exercise 2: Decide if the following statements are true or false

1. The first speaker celebrates Christmas with friends at their house.
2. The second speaker enjoys fireworks during Guy Fawkes Night.
3. The third speaker celebrates New Year with their family.
4. The fourth speaker's family hides chocolate eggs in the garden on Easter.
5. The fifth speaker's husband and daughter make all the meals on Mother's Day.
6. The sixth speaker's dad has his birthday close to Father's Day.

Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks with the correct words from the transcript.

1. we open _____ in the morning and then help prepare the _____ lunch.
2. We watch a _____ display at a local park during Guy Fawkes Night.
3. On New Year's Eve, we count the seconds until _____ o'clock when the new year begins.
4. On Easter, we hide chocolate _____ in the garden for the _____ to find.
5. On Mother's Day, I can just _____ while my husband and daughter make all the _____.
6. For Father's Day, we usually go to a nice _____ for a meal.

Exercise 4: Writing Task

Instructions: Write a short paragraph (100-120 words) about how you celebrate your favorite festival. Include details such as who you celebrate with, what activities you do, and why it is your favorite.